Sinu Sivakumar

Founder & CEO • MYEAI
17 Yrs • Edu-Tech • Finance • Technology

Sinu Sivakumar has spent 17 years at the intersection of finance, technology, and education — not in theory, but in practice. As Founder & CEO of MYEAI, he has built a Human Intelligence-powered financial markets education ecosystem for traders, educators, and entrepreneurs worldwide.

5 Shifts you will Walk away with

1. From Spending to Investing — Inside Your Own Business

Most founders treat costs as unavoidable. Learn to re-engineer every rupee as a capital decision.

You will never look at a business cost the same way again.

2. Build a Financial Model That Actually Drives Sales

Sales projections without a financial backbone are just optimism. Learn to build revenue models where investment decisions directly shape sales velocity.

You will know how to make your business fundable and scalable.

3. Financial Psychology: The Discipline Behind Every Big Decision

The mental framework that separates great traders from broken ones is what separates great CEOs from stressed founders.

You will have a decision-making system — not just instincts.

4. Using AI as Your Financial Compass — Not Just a Tool

AI for financial clarity — reading trends, structuring investments, timing growth decisions — is the frontier most entrepreneurs have not touched yet.

You will understand how AI can become your financial co-pilot.

4. Build Income Streams That Work While You Build Your Business

The next-generation entrepreneur does not wait for an exit to create wealth. Learn how structured financial ecosystems create parallel income while you scale.

You will leave with a blueprint for multiple revenue layers — not just one.

Marketing Strategy Training

Modern marketing techniques for business growth and brand visibility.

Topics Covered:

- Social media marketing
- Brand positioning
- Lead generation
- Content marketing
- Customer engagement
- Performance marketing
